DANTONIO ON JACKSON:

"Travis Jackson was the AP Ohio Division III Defensive Player of the Year and led his team to the state championship game. In all of my years following high school football, I don't recall a lineman finishing third in the balloting for Ohio's Mr. Football Award. He's a very good student and an extremely talented athlete. Travis is tough and tenacious player, and the guy makes a lot of impressive plays. He's also displayed some great leadership skills. He will come to MSU as an offensive lineman."
